Petitioner filed I.A.No.1060/2007 in O.P.1341/2005 on the file of the Family Court, Alappuzha. Grievance of the petitioner is that even though I.A. was heard, no orders were so far passed. Personal presence of the petitioner is not necessary for passing order in I.A. Therefore Family Court is directed to pass orders in I.A. as expeditiously as possible. The Family Court has to take a practical approach. Parties should not be harassed and their presence can be insisted only where it is absolutely necessary. Petitioner is employed abroad, and she stated that she will come in September and adduce evidence as the case is posted in September. With the above observations this writ petition is disposed of. Petitioner can produce the copy of this judgment before the Family Court for passing order in the I.A. finally.
